I couldn't agree more. One more time, I have never talked about this kind of abuse publicly, so the fact that he talks about it and was the one who brought it up means he's being briefed. There does not need to be a report or "dna." The fact that he continues to bring this up

If they do and her husband looks like he does, the private dix will drop dimes with child services and prove it in court legally along with pictures of him doing the drugs and if she does too, then her too, photos and videos of both of these people doing drugs and a history of doing drugs long term, not one video or one photo.

That's not illegal, you're suppose to report parents who are doing drugs to child services, they are putting their children at risk and there
